

September
2009

YEScarolina

Youth Entrepreneurship South Carolina

Entrepreneurial Teacher & Student of the Year for 2009

MISTY PALLOTTA

TOMMY BROWN

Misty Pallotta, Entrepreneurship Teacher from Wando High School, Mount Pleasant, SC recognized as the YEScarolina Certified Entrepreneurship Teacher of the Year!!!

Tommy Brown, Rock Hill High School student recognized as YEScarolina's Entrepreneurial Student of the Year! Tommy will go to New York City to compete in the Oppenheimer Business Plan Competition in October 2009. This national competition is sponsored by the Network for Teaching Entrepreneurship (NFTE).

In 2010, YEScarolina will be joining up with local businesses around the state to offer summer school entrepreneurship programs for middle school students. More details coming soon!

Welcome 2009-2010 Entrepreneurial teachers/ students!!

It's an exciting year with lots of competitions and contests! Those business plans that you will be writing have the potential to earn you cash!!!