

April 2007

YEScarolina at the NFTE Entrepreneurial Spirit Awards Dinner

Pictured left to right: Jenny Whittle, Aimee Gray, Damian

Brown, and Jimmy Bailey

YEScarolina
Youth Entrepreneurship South Carolina

newsletter

YEScarolina is named Program Partner of the Year at the NFTE Annual Awards Gala in New York City

NFTE stated that YEScarolina stands out in every category hands down over other program partners and is leading the nation in entrepreneurship education!!!

NFTE chose Damian Brown as the South Carolina Young Entrepreneur of the Year for demonstrating unique entrepreneurial spirit and for proving himself to be a responsible member of the community. Damian won an all expenses paid trip to New York to attend the awards dinner, as well as $1,000.00 in grant money to be used to expand his business or to be applied toward a college education.

Aimee Gray, a dedicated and talented teacher, was also awarded by NFTE as the South Carolina Certified Entrepreneurship Teacher of the Year for helping young people recognize the potential in themselves to improve their surroundings, their lives, and their communities. Aimee also won an all expenses paid trip to New York and $1,000.00.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Alvalene Rogers and Edna Mathis from C E Murray High School whose Entrepreneurship team placed 4th at the FBLA Conference!!!

Now Available

Registration form for Advanced Training is now available at www.yescarolina.com

Upcoming Events:

Summer Advanced Training
July 15-17 or July 18-19

YEScarolina Awards
Banquet to be held
Wednesday, July 16th